The Biology department is thrilled to congratulate and spotlight our recent graduates who have achieved remarkable milestones. Here is a summary of their accomplishments:

1. SCHOLARS IN QUANTITATIVE AND NATURAL SCIENCES (SQNS) AWARDS
- Harlan graduates
- Isvita Marfatia
- Sarah Chachula (Chemistry Major)

2. HARLAN GRADUATES
- Michelle Jungsun Ahn

3. GRADUATING WITH DEPARTMENTAL HONORS
- Amy Milo
- Diti Chatterjee Bhowick
- Kathryn Norman
- Tiffini Smith
- Anya Mehdizadeh
- Yana Kropotova

Dr. Powell's laboratory.

FISH TREE OF LIFE

Half of all living vertebrate species are fishes, and Dr. Donaldson made an impact and left his support, and to Amy Zanne and Leon.

- Megan Harlan, a rising Junior who has recently declared a major in biology.

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

- Karly Elizabeth Cohen (BS 2017, COHEN)

The Biology department is excited to announce that Karly Elizabeth Cohen, a rising Junior who has recently declared a major in biology, has been awarded a Postdoctoral Research Fellowship. Early in her junior year, Karly was recently awarded a Top Scholar Fellowship. At the University of Washington where she

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

- Karly Elizabeth Cohen (BS 2017, COHEN)

The Biology department is excited to announce that Karly Elizabeth Cohen, a rising Junior who has recently declared a major in biology, has been awarded a Postdoctoral Research Fellowship. Early in her junior year, Karly was recently awarded a Top Scholar Fellowship. At the University of Washington where she

References

- National Academy of Sciences
- Journal of Morphology
- FISH TREE OF LIFE
- Half of all living vertebrate species are fishes, and Dr. Donaldson made an impact and left his support, and to Amy Zanne and Leon.

Contact Us

Phone: 202-994-6090

2029 G Street NW

Room 302

Sign up to our email list

Subscribe to our email list